2023 Nominees for Re-election

Shirley Yik
President

Shirley Yik is a graduate of the Ottawa School of Art Fine Arts Diploma Program. She also holds a Bachelor of Commerce degree, a Master of Information Systems Science degree, and a Master of Management Studies degree, all from Carleton University. Formerly she held management positions in telecommunications and internet consulting companies.

Shirley's art practice includes painting, drawing and printmaking. She has received grants from the City of Ottawa and the Ontario Arts Council. Her work is held in private collections and the City of Ottawa's art collection.

Susan Chibuk
Community Member

Susan brings her work experience in a broad range of professional and management positions, primarily with the public sector. Susan is a graduate of the University of Alberta (Bachelor of Arts, Economics) and of the University of Ottawa (Master of Business Administration).

The visual and social environments across Canada have always had Susan's attention and have been the focus of her frontline and Board volunteer activities since her retirement. Susan enjoys working with fabric, reading and baking.

As a new Board member, Susan looks forward to supporting the Ottawa School of Art's contributions to the academic, continuous learning and broader communities of Ottawa.

Judith Donin
Community Member

Judith holds a Bachelor of Fine Art (BFA) from York University specializing in Visual Arts and Design, and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Ottawa. Currently, she is a management consultant and project executive providing leadership expertise in large-scale business transformation and innovation. Judith leverages 20 years of diverse experience to advise on strategic planning and design, business architecture, organizational change and operational improvements. She strives to help senior executives and their teams turn strategic priorities into tactile plans and ensure the investments they make support the growth of their organization and the needs of their employees and clients.

Judith has worked across private, public, and not-for-profit sectors including five years delivering the IM/IT requirements to bring digital media education products into schools and communities. Having spent many years supporting youth-based organizations such as Big Brothers Big Sisters Ottawa and Girl Guides of Canada, she now looks forward to reconnecting with the arts.

2023 Nominees for Election

Zoriana Priadka
Secretary
(to be confirmed)

Zoriana Priadka began her career in Toronto with a focus on civil litigation, before further refining her skills in employment law at a prominent full-service regional law firm in Ottawa. Since joining Emond Harnden in 2023, Zoriana has been dedicated to providing her clients with invaluable support and representation in all areas of employment and labour law. In addition to her legal practice, Zoriana is frequently invited to present at conferences and lead seminars covering various subjects within the fields of employment and human rights. She has had a keen interest in the arts since high school and continues her passion for painting portraits and landscapes. Zoriana is an avid cook and enjoys hiking.

Robyn Heaton
Community Member

Robyn retired from her position at Algonquin College as Dean of the Faculty of Arts, Media, and Designing 2022. In this position for eight years, Robyn's portfolio of 30+ programs included Graphic Design, Illustration and Concept Art, Interior Design, and Animation. Prior to this position, Robyn was the Academic Chair for Media Studies and a Professor and Coordinator for the Advertising and Marketing Communications Program at Algonquin. Earlier in her career, Robyn gained experience in media and design industries.

Robyn would bring her leadership and management experience in areas such as strategic planning, education program evolution, stakeholder collaboration and partnership development as well as experience with committees, Boards and community engagement to the OSA.
